Adler Painting and Papering - Ron Adler provides decorative wall finishing for commercial, retail, hospitality, and residential projects. Services include professional interior painting of walls and trim, as well as wallpapering and faux finishes. Glazes, stains, imprints, plaster and textured materials are applied by hand in a range of techniques to produce beautiful patinas on walls, doors and moldings. A desired effect can be produced with just a simple colored glaze atop a painted surface, or more elaborate multi layered applications, utilizing textures and glaze. We focus on quality, customer satisfaction, preparation and follow through by clean, careful, courteous professionals.
